GM 1998-02 LS1 F-Body Cold Air Intake Lid Installation Instructions (Read Carefully Before Starting Project)

Thank you for purchasing the Granatelli Motor Sports cold air intake lid. Our high flow induction kit features improved airflow capacity, easy installation, and premium hardware. Like all Granatelli Motor Sports products, great pride and precision craftsmanship went into making this kit.

Tools Required - Pliers and Flat Head Screwdriver

Remove Old Air Box Assembly:

1. Unplug mass airflow sensor and inlet air temperature sensor from air inlet.
2. Remove push clips from both sides of air box by pulling up on the center pin with a set of pliers. Loosen hose clamp at throttle body & unclip front of air box assembly. Remove air box assembly as a complete unit from the air box to the throttle body bellows (accordion hose). 2000-year model cars must remove the 3/4" air hose on the right side of the stock air box.
3. We recommend removing the factory paper element air filter and replacing it with a new high performance air filter.
4. Remove the inlet air temp sensor and grommet from the factory air box by gently prying the unit out with a flat head screwdriver. Be careful not to damage this unit. Install the grommet and sensor into the existing hole in the GMS air box assembly.
5. Remove stock mass airflow sensor from factory air box by gently prying the unit away from the air box lid. For added performance install 350112 Granatelli Hi-flow calibrated Mass Airflow Sensor (contact Granatelli Motor Sports for your nearest dealer)

Install New Air Box Assembly:

1. Install the mass airflow sensor into the end of the GMS air box and fasten with a supplied 3 1/2" clamp. Do not over tighten the clamp or damage to the air box may result. Clean the bottom of the GMS air box seal with alcohol or equivalent cleaner and install the rubber seal supplied with the air filter to the bottom of the GMS air induction.
2. Install the bellows onto the mass air if it was removed. Install the complete GMS air box assembly from lid to bellows onto the car. Fit the bellows onto the throttle body first followed by sliding the 4 clips on the air box lid into their receptacles. Push the top of the lid back far enough so that the front lip is behind the bottom lip and snap the front two clips into place and tighten the hose clamp at the throttle body. Note bellows may be tighter together than stock.
3. Plug in the air inlet temp sensor and mass airflow sensor. 2000-2002 year model cars must install the supplied filter in the 3/4" rubber air hose and mount to inner fender with supplied tie straps. Start the car and check for any air leaks.
